

The following amended policy is recommended and will be voted on at the November 2007 meeting:

Dining out policy: The Club will pay for meals when the primary discussion topic of the meal relates to Club business, when the meal follows and is in conjunction with a scheduled Club meeting, or when it is otherwise previously authorized by Board or membership vote. The Club will not pay for alcoholic beverages, and individuals will pay for any meal over $10, exclusive of tip.